Attacks School Principal.

A severe attack on school principal Chas. E. Allen of Sylmar, Ga., is thus told by him. "For more than three years," he writes, "I suffered indescribable torture from rheumatism, liver and stomach trouble and diseased kidneys. All remedies failed till I used Electric Bitters, but four bottles of this wonderful remedy cured me completely." Such results are common. Thousands bless them for curing stomach trouble, female complaints, kidney disorders, biliousness and for new health and vigor. Try them. Only 50c at the Red Cross Pharmacy.

DYSPEPSIA ON THE DECLINE

Seaver's Dyspepsia Tablets Cure Forty-nine Cases Out of Fifty.

Why anyone in Barre and East Barre should continue to suffer with indigestion, when a box of Seaver's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure, is certainly a mystery. D. E. Davis and Frank Roark have been selling Seaver's Dyspepsia Tablets for some time, and we know from actual experience right here in our own stores just what Seaver's Famous Dyspepsia Tablets will do, and if you inquire of the above druggists they will tell you they never knew a remedy to prove so decidedly beneficial in the treatment of indigestion, dyspepsia, palpitation, sleeplessness and other forms of stomach trouble.

It certainly ought to give you confidence when you know that every 50c box of Seaver's Dyspepsia Tablets contains 20 days' treatment, and at the end of that time if you are not decidedly benefited all you need to do is to go back to the dealer and get your money. Seaver's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold right on their own merits. They cure indigestion simply by toning up the stomach and digestive organs so that the food will assimilate and give strength to the system just as nature intended. Seaver's Dyspepsia Tablets are such a good nerve tonic, too. Just try a box and see if it doesn't give you new energy, new ambition and new courage to carry out your plans and daily work. If it doesn't, your money back.

How to Make Better Cough Syrup than
You Can Buy

A Family Supply, Saving $2 and Fully Guaranteed.

A full pint of cough syrup—as much as you could buy for $2.50—can easily be made at home. You will find nothing that takes hold of an obstinate cough more quickly, usually ending it inside of 24 hours. Excellent, too, for whooping cough, croup, lung asthma, hoarseness and other throat troubles.

Mix 1 pint of granulated sugar with 2 1/2 pints of warm water and stir for 2 minutes. Put 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex (50 cents' worth) in a pint bottle; then add the Sugar Syrup. It keeps perfectly. Take a teaspoonful every one, two or three hours.

This is just laxative enough to help cure a cough. Also stimulates the appetite, which is usually upset by a cough. The taste is pleasant.

The effect of pine and sugar syrup on the inflamed membranes is well known. Pinex is the most valuable concentrated compound of Norway white pine extract, rich in gulic acid and all the natural healing pine elements. Other preparations work to work in this formula. The Pinex and Sugar Syrup recipe is now used by thousands of housewives throughout the United States and Canada. The pine has been imitated, but the old successful formula has never been equaled.

A guarantee of absolute satisfaction, or money promptly refunded goes with this recipe. Your druggist has Pinex. If he does not, send to The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

CHELSEA.

John Lane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert H. Lane, left last Thursday for Hartford, Conn., where he expected to find employment as a chauffeur.

Mrs. George W. Taplin, who has been a long time sufferer from rheumatism and other complications, has not been as well of late and is now confined to her bed.

Mrs. Abbie L. Davis of South Washington has sold her farm to Will C. Yearst of Washington, and title passed Friday. Possession will be given about the first of May.

Supt. H. D. Casey of Williamstown held teachers' examinations here Thursday and Friday last week, at which several teachers availed themselves of the opportunity to "qualify."

The remains of Miss Fannie Blakeley, a native of this town, who died at her home in Bethel, were brought here for interment in the Allen cemetery on the west last Friday. She deceased was a maiden lady about eighty years of age and was a sister of the late John Blakeley. She is survived by one brother, Lewis D. Blakeley, of Randolph.

Eugene H. Kennedy has rented his blacksmith shop in the upper village to Z. Burnelle of Barre City, who will take possession about the first of May. He will occupy the tenement on Main street, owned by Mrs. Charles M. Goodrich. Mr. Burnelle will come to this town with very high recommendations as an expert horse shoe and a number one all-around blacksmith.

A reception was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Mark Whitney and Mr. and Mrs. John W. Bicknell at grange hall Friday evening, when a large gathering assembled to extend congratulations to the worthy newly married people. Several valuable presents were given to each couple. K. H. Bolton presiding the same and the groom responded feelingly. Punch and wafers were served.

Deputy Sheriff George A. Tracy was in Newbury Thursday and arrested one Edger Webster, on the charge of statutory rape, and brought him back to town, and on Friday, at the office of State's Attorney Stanley C. Wilson, he was given a preliminary hearing and was bound over to the June term of Orange county court, bail being fixed at $1,000, which he failed to furnish and was committed to jail to await the action of the grand jury. The hearing was before Justice John M. Comstock and the respondent was represented by David S. Conant of Bradford.

News has been received here of the death, at her home in Mauston, Wisconsin, on March 7, of Mrs. Elizabeth G. Dodge, who bore her marriage to Miss Mary Ann Nourse, and while not a native of Chelsea, spent several years of her girlhood on the west hill on a farm now owned by Frank Hemmings, near the C. L. Hood farm, and which is now used as a pasture. Her husband, Mr. Dodge, was a native of this town and will be remembered by many of the older residents, as well as by many of the younger ones, who had the pleasure of meeting him during the old home week of 1909. Besides her husband, who is now over eighty, she is survived by four sons and one daughter.

Only Sober Men Wanted

Competition is too keen and life is too strenuous for an employer to keep on his pay-roll men who are not in mental or physical condition to perform their duties. Every line of business is closing its doors to "drinking" men. If you are a drinking man, it may be your time next. Better stop drinking at once. Orine, the standard remedy for the liquor habit, will help you. By the aid of Orine thousands of men have been restored to lives of sobriety and industry, hence they have become worth more to their employers, and best of all they've made their loved ones happier.

Orine is a simple home treatment. No loss of time from work while you are taking it. Start to-day. You will be surprised at the results. We are so sure that Orine will benefit you that we say to you that if, after a trial, you fail to get any benefit from its use, we will give you money back.

ORINE is prepared in two forms, No. 1, secret treatment, a powder, absolutely tasteless and odorless, given secretly in food or drink. ORINE No. 2, in pill form, is for those who desire to take voluntary treatment. ORINE costs only $1.00 a box. Write for free Orine booklet (mailed in plain sealed envelope) to ORINE COMPANY, Orine building, Washington, D. C. ORINE is recommended and is for sale in this city by Burt H. Wells, 160 North Main street.

APACHES OF PARIS

Night Prowlers Whose Trade Is Murder and Robbery.

THE TERROR OF THE POLICE.

These Desperadoes Rarely Use a Gun, but Work With the Knife, the Bludgeon or by "Tolling"—They Have a Short and Bloody Career.

There are very few nights in the year when Paris policemen on their rounds do not stumble upon a body lying in a gory pool. Sometimes the handle of a long, slender knife protrudes between the shoulder blades; sometimes an ugly gash bleeds from ear to ear; not seldom blood oozes from mouth, nose and ears, as though the dead had not sustained any apparent wound, or three little starlike bruises may dot the temple, or a bluish line an inch wide may mark the back of the neck, just above the collar line. "Les Apaches," the "cops" whisper to each other (for Parisian police officers always go two by two), and they call for an ambulance, much relieved not to have witnessed the incident.

The steel blade, the blackjack, the brass knuckles, will serve the purpose of the Apache, according to his victim's size and presumable strength. For a prey of small stature, however, the Apache reserves what in his slang he calls "tolling." A sharp blow dazes the victim and throws him down; the Apache's knees bore themselves into the chest, while his hands seize the ears, lift the head and slam it a couple of times on the pavement until a duller thud tells of a fractured skull.

Until an Apache is an adept at "tolling" his man in very much the same way in which a Spanish toreador matches a bull, with a single thrust between the shoulders, or at cracking a skull bone at one slam, he is held in little esteem and never allowed to tackle "big jobs" in a dangerous neighborhood, for Paris is a well policed city. The night hawk must strike like lightning, empty the dead man's pockets in a wink and slink away into the dark. Therefore Apaches very seldom carry guns; the knife is silent. Tolling, too, is safe—so many people are known to have slipped and fractured their skulls! Unless the victim is especially well dressed there is not much of an inquiry.

When it is all over the gang, which scatters like a flock of frightened sparrows, meets again at some wineshop where no one is welcome who is not "in the business."

Apaches never try to conceal their social status. Their very clothes are a sort of warning to the public. They even affect a peculiar walk, the body bent from the loins, shoulders hunched and hands plunging deep into the trousers pockets. But who would dare molest them?

The Apache is a marked man. He joins a gang at three or four and twenty, and by thirty or thirty-five he has gone. The maws of a jail hold him for the balance of his earthly existence. He knows that. He expects it. Therefore while his freedom lasts there is no desperate chance he will not take to get at the gold that alone could save him.

Apaches are not born; they are made—made by the peculiar laws of France. Every citizen of the republic, without distinction of rank or class, must serve under his country's flag for two years. Only the physically unfit escape that servitude. At the end of his term in the ranks every Frenchman seeking employment must present as means of identification his certificate of honorable discharge.

Then it is that tragedy looms up for some unfortunate. Woe to the one whose certificate mentions the "African battalions!"

The African battalions, garrisoned at the edge of the Sahara desert, are made up of all the boys who had the misfortune of being arrested before they reached the age of twenty-one. Trivial as their offenses may have been, whether they were due or not to the indiscreet exuberance of youth or to some absurd entanglement, they are sent to the desert outposts, kept on convict fare, sleeping mostly in trenches which they dig, watched over by sentries that shoot to kill.

Under the broiling sun that lays them down fast with fever and cholera they build roads, creep over the next day by the sand. They are "the front" whenever Arabs or Moroccans threaten to shake off the French yoke. When they fall by the wayside they are tied to a horse's tail. When they protest spurs cause the horse to rear.

And when the creepy water of sand wells, bullets from the sentries or from the nomads and the hoofs of vicious horses have spared them they return to their native city with hatred in their hearts, with the loathsome memories left by association with the depraved and the morally diseased.

They return to their native city to find doors and hearts locked to them. Their military book, which they must produce, proclaims them jailbirds. Who wants to employ an ex-convict? During their two years in the African inferno they have atoned for their errors of the eighteenth or nineteenth year. For the second time they have settled their account with society.

And now society refuses them a chance to show that they have (for some of them have) shed the old hide, to prove that a new heart is beating in their breasts.

Hard is the plight of an ex-convict in France—Andre Fridon in New York Tribune.
